La Scala

The famous Italian restaurant hailing from the sister hotel in Bangkok, La Scala is led by Michelin-starred guest chef Theodor Falser, who put emphasis on crafting creative Italian cuisine that prizes authenticity, refined quality and sustainability.

The delightful gastronomic experience at La Scala is about discovery – through presenting wholesome ingredients in the purest form, thoughtful flavour pairing with unexpected twists to traditional recipes, inventive ways of cooking stem-to-root and nose-to-tail, and artful presentations that accentuate the restaurant’s culinary philosophy. Chef Theodor and the culinary team at La Scala have meticulously devised a menu inspired by the pristine nature, shining light on recipes that call attention to local and sustainable sourcing, low waste, and zero frozen and processed ingredients, paying homage to food, land and its people.

Inspired by the Italian Renaissance garden, the restaurant showcases the classical notions through the use of hand-glazed ceramic tiles, teakwood parquet flooring and hanging lights framed by gridded wood columns, calling for a sense of contemporary sophistication. The chef’s table in the open kitchen is the focal point of the restaurant, where diners can enjoy the chefs’ performance and flair.
